APA style is one of the most common formats for citing sources. Other well known citation styles include MLA and Chicago.. APA Style citations consist of two parts: In-text citation: A brief citation in parentheses when you mention a source, citing the author's last name and the year of publication, e.g. (Smith, 2019). It identifies the full source in the reference list.

The APA citation style (6th Edition) is a parenthetical author-date style, so you need to put the author's last name and the publishing date into parentheses wherever another source is used in the narrative. The APA format consists of in-text citations and a reference list, along with guidelines for formatting the paper itself.
