~~“Let Not Your Hearts Be Troubled” (Funeral sermon on John ...)~~

A funeral service such as this is a service offered out of love and respect for the one who has departed, but it is also offered out of love and respect for the ones left behind. So, once again, allow me to say thank you. Much like God, death is no respecter of persons. Death comes to saint and sinner, young and old, high and low.

Father Bill Bausch's homilies are always outstanding. He brings a deep pastoral presence and much thought and preparation to each of them. This has never been more evident than here in this book of funeral homilies. Each is crafted to reflect the person remembered as well as the message of Scripture. Each reflects the communal nature of a Catholic funeral and is sensitive to the status of the mourners: non-Catholics, lapsed Catholics, faithful parishioners, relatives, and friends. Father Bill's words are faith-filled and compassionate, comforting and challenging, communal and personal. He regards the funeral liturgy as one of the
