Book five in the Croft & Croft Romance Adventures... How much can one man take? Everything is changing around him--his life, career, and family. Greyson Croft is struggling to keep his head above water. Everywhere he looks, someone wants him dead. It's finally taking his toll. The Ice King is losing control. Worse of all, his wife is playing with fire. There's a killer in town and Detective Emma Croft has made it her mission to stop him. Someone's taking dating to a whole new level as they leave a trail of dead women behind. Why? What is it about sex, cheating, and online dating that's turned so deadly? What they do know is that they don't have much time. Blood is going to be shed, but which person in their family is going to take the fall? Will it be the man who holds the world on his shoulders? The woman who holds his heart? Perhaps, it'll be an innocent bystander who gets caught in the crossfire? Time will tell, but before it's over someone will die. Greyson

Croft is inches from taking the fall, and it'll be to a dark place where few return... Heaven is Weeping, and Greyson Croft is helpless to stop it.

A nail-biting novel of domestic suspense from a best-selling author - When Morgan Adair arrives at the small seaside town of West Briar on the Long Island shore, she is looking forward to attending the baptism of her new godson, Drew. Morgan and Drew's mother, Claire, have been friends since childhood, and Morgan was delighted when Claire married the handsome Guy Bolton. But a few days after the christening, Morgan receives a devastating phone call from her friend . . .

When I am honest with myself and God, I find that He stands ready to respond to every cry of my heart. This confident knowledge of God ' s faithfulness fuels hope in my heart and gives me the emotional strength to carry on through chronic illness and pain. I know, without a doubt, that God knows me and that even my doubt and fury do not surprise him. Throughout every challenge and disappointment, God is there, ready to respond. Despite, or perhaps through, the experiences of my life, I have been blessed to bring God ' s message of love and redemption to family, friends, and strangers. One More Mile continues Elizabeth Morgan ' s mission of providing hope to the skeptic, the discouraged, the cheerless, the disheartened. And while her candid exploration of her own suffering demonstrates a very real desire to find purpose and meaning in affliction, her humour ensures that the tone is never self-pitying or joyless. You will find yourself smiling, nodding in agreement, and laughing out loud at the vignettes she shares here. She encourages you, just as she has been encouraged, and offers a love story—the story of God ' s love for His children, His faithfulness, and His care.

This is a study of the paintings of one of the most significant and prolific Victorian women artists, Evelyn Pickering De Morgan (1855-1919). Just over a hundred paintings and a handful of sculptures are known, and they reveal what her sister-biographer described as an "incessant struggle" to create. This study of her work confirms that the idea of progress toward the afterlife is a recurrent motif, arising from a personal involvement in the movement of Spiritualism and paralleling the automatic writing passages in The Result of an Experiment (1909), anonymously published by Evelyn and her husband William De Morgan. This book analyzes her exploration of these spiritualist and proto-feminist issues in a series of mythological, literary, and biblical images, in a number of war-related paintings associated with the Boer War and with World War I, and in the allegories for which she is most well known. De Morgan's art is illustrated here by 14 color plates and 67 black-and-white images. In addition, reproductions of 50 comparative works, most of them by her contemporaries in England, enhance our understanding of the period.

Do you long for an example of how to take your desires and brokenness to God? Do you doubt your own value because your life hasn't turned out the way you had hoped? Do you wonder if God cares what's on your heart? Or even hears your prayers? In Hannah: Woman of Worship, author Karen Morgan offers a thought-provoking Bible study workbook using the life of Hannah, an ancient Israelite woman. Written for both personal use and group study, this guide will lead you on a journey into God's Word where you will examine your own heart, dig through scripture, reflect on God's character, and begin to surrender your past, present, and future into His loving hands. Combining study of scripture with Morgan's personal observations based on years of Bible study and prayer, Hannah: Woman of Worship is designed to help Christian women grow in their faith.

In Heart of the Lonely Exile, Book Two of BJ Hoff ' s acclaimed and bestselling Emerald Ballad series, readers will find heroine Nora Kavanagh struggling to build a new life for herself and her son Daniel in America. With help from a wealthy American family and friendship and support from a British gentleman, Nora nevertheless finds herself caught in a conflict of the heart. Michael Burke, a strong, dedicated Irish policeman, desperately wants to keep his promise to his best friend Morgan Fitzgerald to marry Nora and protect her. But Nora ' s instincts urge her to resist Michael ' s proposal and follow her heart in a different direction....More troubling still, in the midst of her personal struggle, the heartaches from her homeland continue to plague her. Heart of the Lonely Exile continues the saga of the Kavanagh pilgrimage—a journey of the soul in a strange new land, where all those who are exiles and aliens seek to finally find their true home.

In Lady Bea Morgan's Memoir, The Pastor's Wife Does Cry, Pastor Claxton William Morgan, along with many of the church members, took her on a ten year ride of a lifetime as a pastor's wife. Those rocks, bumps, pot holes and hills taught Lady Bea to fast and pray intensely. The Extension shares how her prayer life and ministry originated. Through her tough times and abuse, you are bound to laugh and cry in the same sentence while being enlightened by God's Word. Lady Bea shares her techniques to create strategic prayer warriors, form fasting committees, save churches, ministries, marriages and families. She wants you to hear directly from the Lord; her secret is inside. With her warnings, you don't have to experience her wilderness unless God places you there! She has God-given parables to bless your ministry! She proves that God prepares us for ministry through misery without us realizing it. Lady Bea Morgan, An Extension of "The Pastor's Wife Does Cry," will tighten your relationship with Jesus, heighten your prayers, cause you to intercede for every leader, teach you to shake your troubles like Paul and walk in forgiveness while increasing your faith to believe that your prayers will be heard and answered in God's own time!
